Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

The undersigned respectfully requests to be advised of the status of the above-identified application.

In this regard, Examiner Pham called on June 17, 2005 and indicated that there was an Office Action dated in June 2004 which was mailed but returned to the Patent Office by the Post Office. Moreover, the undersigned confirms that no Office Action was received in the timeframe of June 2004 and that the Examiner's phone call is the first that the undersigned became aware of an Office Action being mailed in the present application.

Accordingly, the Applicants respectfully request that the Patent Office re-send the Office Action originally sent in June 2004 and restart the response due date. All correspondence in the present application should be sent to the following address:
